10 years old Yazan Kafarneh was one of the first in Gaza to die of starvation. Suffering from cerebral palsy meant he needed a soft, high-nutrition diet (bananas & egg) which became impossible. In the next few days the number of hunger deaths has risen to 25 (10/3/24), and UNICEF says the babies of thousands of women who are due to give birth in the next month are at risk of dying.

Families are eating leaves and scraps left by rats, in desperate attempt to stay alive
